Councillor challenges the correctness of the voting, the hands shall be counted a second time: Provided that any two councillors request for a poll the presiding authority shall call the roll of the Councillors and record on the minute of the meeting, the names of the Councillors voting for and against. But no Councillor shall vote on, or take part in the discussion of any question coming up for the consideration of the council if it is one in which, apart from its general application to the public, he has direct or indirect pecuniary personal interest. If the presiding believed by any Councillor present at the meeting to have any pecuniary interest in any matter under discussion, and if a motion to that effect is carried, he shall not preside at the meeting during discussion or vote. Any other Councillor may be chosen to preside during the continuance of such discussion.

15. Budget discussion.—When a Budget or reappropriation statement is laid before a general meeting, the procedure shall be as follows:—

> The presiding shall read each item of abstract of receipts and expenditure and shall without any mover or seconder put to the meeting the question "that this item stands part of the budget or reappropriation statement." If any Councillor propose to reduce or increase or strike off the item and the proposal be seconded, such proposal shall be treated as an amendment and shall become the question before the meeting.

16. Proposal to adjourn or postpone.—Any proposal to adjourn a meeting or to postpone the consideration of a question shall be decided with the consent of a majority of Councillors present and the meeting may be adjourned to a later hour on the same day or to any other subsequent date.

17. Meetings ordinarily open to public.—Every meeting shall be opened to public unless the presiding authority deems any enquiry or deliberation pending before the municipal council such as should be held in private: Provided that the said authority may at any time cause any person to be removed who interrupts the proceedings.

18. Rights and privileges of the Councillors.—Every Councillor has, at all reasonable time, a right to look into the proceedings book of the Council. He shall have access to the accounts and other records of the Municipal Council on giving due notice to the President: provided that the President may, for reasons given in writing, refuse such permission. Any Councillor may call the attention of the authority to any neglect in the execution of the municipal work, to any waste of municipal property or wants of any locality. He may suggest any improvements which he considers necessary in the interest of the Town. In view of the agenda of the municipal meeting being in the hands of the Councillors in advance of the day of the meeting and having been allowed full scope to get themselves acquainted with the transactions of the municipality and the references connected with the subjects coming up for discussion before the meeting, they shall be allowed 15 minutes just after the commencement of the meeting for getting their doubts cleared once for all. The Councillor who has been answered once shall not be entitled to speak again.

19. Disqualifications of Councillors.—Any Municipal Councillor, who, in spite of ruling being given by the presiding authority, votes or takes part in the discussion of any matter in which he has directly or indirectly personal interest shall be deemed to have vacated his office if a resolution is passed to that effect.

Committees.—The above rules shall apply to the conduct of business of all committees of the Municipal Council except in so far as they relate to the quorum which shall be governed by Section 32 (3) of the Mysore Town Municipalities Act, 1951.

Draft rules approved by Municipal Council at the meeting held on 19th September 1952.
